Property Overview

The Brown Tract is a 210 ± acre hunting and timber property in the sought-after Josie community of Banks, Alabama, in north Pike County. Located in an area known for strong deer and turkey populations, large neighboring landowners, and excellent recreational appeal, this property is set up to be enjoyed from day one.

Offering Summary

Acreage:	210 Acres
Price / Acre:	$4,238
State:	Alabama
City:	Banks
County:	Pike
Property Type:	Timberland, Hunting and Recreational

With approximately 80 acres of recently planted loblolly pines, 80 acres of recently harvested timberland, established internal trails, multiple wildlife food plots, and two hardwood stream bottoms crossing the property, this tract offers an ideal blend of investment potential and quality habitat. The rolling terrain, ranging from 400 to 560 feet in elevation, adds scenic beauty and creates a diverse landscape for hunting, recreation, and potential homesites.

An approximately 1,100-square-foot camp house gives buyers a comfortable place to stay and enjoy weekends on the property, while roughly 2,000 feet of frontage along County Road 6628 provides convenient access. With abundant wildlife, proven hunting history, and a location in a popular recreational corridor, The Brown Tract is a property that checks a lot of boxes for the serious outdoorsman, investor, or family looking for a place to build memories.

Professional Background

Hoke Smith IV, ALC is the Regional Managing Director and Senior Land Advisor at Saunders Real Estate in Alabama. Since entering the industry in 2016, he has specialized in the sale of recreational land, timberland, and agricultural property, helping clients unlock the full value of rural and investment-grade land across the state.

A lifelong outdoorsman and committed land steward, Hoke brings deep personal and professional knowledge of Alabama's natural resources to every transaction. He holds a degree in Wildlife Management & Ecology from Auburn University and maintains active involvement in numerous conservation and land management organizations.

Hoke currently serves as President of the Alabama Chapter of the REALTORS® Land Institute (RLI) and is affiliated with groups such as the Alabama Wildlife Federation and the Alabama Forestry Association. His leadership and dedication reflect a strong commitment to responsible land use and preserving the region's rich environmental heritage.

Hoke lives in Central Alabama in the rural community of Mathews with his wife, Hollan, and their daughter, Mae Pritchett. Their lifestyle reflects the very reasons families seek out recreational land—time spent outdoors, meaningful connection with the land, and strong community ties. In his spare time, Hoke enjoys being on the family farm, where he and his family host friends and create lasting memories rooted in the outdoor traditions of the Southeast.

Hoke specializes in:

- Hunting & Recreation
- Timberland
- Farms & Agriculture
